Q. I understand that Arthur Schlesinger will become a millionaire as a result of having written 1000 Days, the story of the Kennedy administration. I would like to know how many copies of his book are being sold in the hard cover edition each week, and the name of his literary agent who gets 10 per cent.—George Anderson, Evanston, Ill.

A. Schlesinger's book is selling about 4000 copies per week. Schlesinger has no literary agent; the subsidiary rights to his book are handled by the publisher, Houghton Mifflin Co. of Boston.
